

The New York Public Library

The New York Public Library and StoryCorps to Hold “National Day of Listening” Celebration

NYPL and acclaimed oral history project team up for all-day event on Friday, November 27, 2009

---

What: A National Day of Listening | NYPL Art & Picture Collections Project

Six contemporary artists, at the Library’s invitation, have traveled to the StoryCorps booth in Lower Manhattan to record the story of art in their lives. On November 27, 2009, the National Day of Listening, the public will hear excerpts from their tales and look at images of their work. The artists will also participate in a panel discussion about their StoryCorps experiences. Audience members will be invited to share what art means in their personal lives. StoryCorps representatives will be on hand to discuss other ways to get involved in the National Day of Listening and how to record Do-It-Yourself interviews with family members and friends.

Who: Artists:
Michael Cline <http://www.marcjancou.com/artists/michael-cline/>
Annette Cords <http://www.annettecords.net>
Anujan Ezhikode <http://www.anujanezhikode.com>
Builder Levy <http://www.builderlevy.com>
Justin Lieberman <http://www.zachfeuer.com/justinlieberman.html>
Charles Mingus III <http://mingus.charlesmingus3art.com>

When: Friday, November 27, 2009
10:00 a.m. - 5:15 p.m.
*Screenings at 10:00 a.m., 12:00 p.m., and 3:45 p.m.
*Artist panel discussion at 2:15 p.m.

Where: The New York Public Library,
Stephen A. Schwarzman Building
South Court Auditorium
Fifth Avenue at 42nd Street

Press Contacts: Sacha Evans, 646.723.7020 ext. 75 | sevans@storycorps.org
Jennifer Lam, 212.592.7708 | Jennifer\_Lam@nypl.org